Support for Employers in Liverpool

Our Employment Officers are always available to give professional, reliable and ongoing support to employers in relation to disabled people.

We support employers with practical information and advice on:

- Recruiting, employing and retaining disabled people.
- Removing the barriers disabled people may face in employment.
- The 'Access to Work' funding available to support disabled employees.

We also assist with:

- Signposting to other employers who have positive experience of employing disabled people.
- Signposting to training on disability..

For more information, please contact Liverpool Reception.
