FreeWire Magazine

Disabled People Working Together to Change Employment

Free Wire was the Independent Employment Advocacy Centre's regular magazine on tackling employment barriers. In it you will find real life examples of barriers that have come up for disabled people in employment and tips on dealing with them. All of the articles are based on local disabled people's own experiences. Many thanks to all contributors.

Please note that the Advocacy Centre closed on 29th October 2010
