

Text only:

- Standard text
- Medium text
- Large text
- Black on White
- White on black
- Black on yellow
- Yellow on black

International Links

Disability Awareness in Action is a UK based, international human rights organisation run by disabled people.

Disabled Peoples' International (DPI) is a network of national organisations or assemblies of disabled people, established to promote human rights of disabled people through full participation, equalisation of opportunity, and development.

Disabled Women on the Web was set up to provide information, resources, and support for disabled women to continue to change the world.

Disability Social History Project is a US based community history project which welcomes participation. It offers “an opportunity for disabled people to reclaim our history and determine how we want to define ourselves and our struggles. People with disabilities have an exciting and rich history that should be shared with the world.”

European Disability Forum is a European umbrella organisation representing more than 50 million disabled people in Europe. Its mission is to ensure disabled citizens' full access to fundamental and human rights through their active involvement in policy development and implementation in the European Union.

Independent Living Institute offers resources for disabled people and develops consumer-driven policies for self-determination, self-respect and dignity. The site includes an online library of material on independent living.